

Used on Velie high grade vehicles. It is correct construction. The single reach on will be found to stand the test better than double reaches. The single reach gear is flexible, when wheels strike stones, holes in the road, cross walks, etc., the single reach takes the vibration, relieves the strain on the fifth wheel and axles, lessens shock to wheels, prolonging the life of the buggy.

You will find single reach gears on Express Wagons, Heavy Delivery Wagons, U. S. City Mail Wagons because experience has shown that they are the strongest.

PHILANTHROPIC DAY FOR TEMPE

Ladies Plan Second Annual Charity Event for Night of December 30

Philanthropic Day, inaugurated in Tempe last year by the Woman's Club is to be an annual event and arrangements are now underway for the 1916 day to be observed on Tuesday, December 20th. A fine program is being arranged for the evening's entertainment to be given in the Odd Fellows hall.

That the people of Tempe and vicinity will unite in making this affair a success in every respect is hoped for by the ladies in charge, Mrs. D. G. Brown, Mrs. G. R. Finch and Mrs. D. H. Buck and there is no doubt that such will be the result. Donations of money, bedding, garments and groceries will be thankfully received by the ladies who will in turn distribute them among the poor of the town. A like observance of Philanthropic Day last year brought big returns, many families and individuals who were in poor circumstances were supplied with the necessities of living and were happy in their expression of gratitude to the people who had donated to assist them.

The Philanthropic Day program of music, addresses and other entertaining events will be given in the Odd Fellows hall on Thursday evening.

MUNICIPAL CHRISTMAS TREE
Christmas Eve and the celebration of the big municipal Christmas tree will soon be here, and the efforts of the different committees are being redoubled. The Finance Committee was busy Monday collecting subscriptions, and met with success far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of the workers. But more is needed; not only money, but clothes and food also.

To those citizens of this community who have not yet contributed towards the tree, the committee in charge of the affair desire to submit the following:

Do you think the Municipal Christmas tree a mere bit of ostentation on the part of a few sentimentaries? Do you think it good for the children of the unfortunate to look forward to the Yuletide as the unhappiest time of the year? Do you think these deserving children of the poor should be forgotten at Christmas because you were too selfish to give a little of what you could spend on yourself toward a fund with which to see that they are properly cared for at this season of the year?

If you could answer Yes to these questions, you would not be asked to join in this movement by the Municipal Christmas tree committee, because their pleas differ from yours. They believe that it is a part of their duty to see that the poor and needy are made happy at this time; they do not want to see Christmas abolished, but they do want to see its joys passed around.

You may ask, "What do I get out of it?" This is the consciousness that you have been faithful to the hearts of little children; that poverty has not been allowed to twist them toward unbelief and bitterness.

Those of you of heart and girls who would never know what Christmas meant were it not for the earnest little army of citizens, both men and women, who are striving for the success of this movement. Many fathers are away from home at work, and many mothers at the washboard, doing everything they can honestly, to keep the bodies and souls of their little children from being twisted by the huddled around a few coals at night, and poorly clad, maybe, but with high hopes and great visions, are talking of the mystery of Santa Claus, wondering and on the verge of believing that things they would like to have, like other children—the more fortunate ones—will be brought to them this night of Christmas Eve, just as your youngsters are at home.

Are you going to let these children be disappointed? It rests with you. The time is short. If you mean to do anything to help, do it now.
